

Kim English

Born in 1957, Kim English was raised in a small community in Colorado.

He attended Rocky Mountain School of Art in Denver.

Currently he receives inspiration traveling throughout the world, capturing images of everyday life.

Exhibitions

Allied Artists of America

Gold Medal of Honor 1994 - New York

William Meyerowitz Memorial Award for an American Scene 1992- New York

National Academy of Design

A.R. Mitchell Memorial Museum of Western Art

Huntsville Museum of Fine Art

The Salmagundi Club

Joseph Hartly Memorial Award for an Oil Painting 1992 - New York

Artists of America

NAWA - National Academy of Western Art

Salon d' Arts Invitational

Madame Peugeot Cultural Center - Paris

Akron Society of Artists

Grand Exhibition Award - 1993

Knickerbocker Artists

42nd Annual Exhibition - 1992 New York

Sangre de Cristo Center for the Arts

Silver Medal "Best of the Sangres" - 1997

Silver Medal "My Favorite Place" - 1999

PAAC - Plein Air Artists of Colorado

Master Signature Award - 2012

Representing the West

Gold Medal of Honor - 2014

American Lung Association

"Celebrating the Art of Clean Air"

Publications

Southwest Art

"Charmed by the Commonplace"

"Beauty in the Everyday"

American Artist

"A Moment of Truth"

Artist's Magazine

"Keeping it Simple"

American Art Collector

"Small Moments of Clarity and Beauty"

Art Talk

"Spotlight"